

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Bruce Evans
612-209-4593
bruce@beddheadmedia.com

Dan DeJaeger
651-373-6884
dan@beddheadmedia.com

Founding Fathers Products Presents American Legion with Another $75,000 Donation
Minnesota Company Continues to Donate Portion of Profits from the Sales of Coffee & Pet Treats

Wayzata, MN (September 3, 2025) – A Minnesota company continues their mission of supporting American military families. Founding Fathers Products recently presented American Legion with another significant donation of $75,000. The presentation took place at American Legion’s National Convention with Founding Fathers Products founder, Phil Knutsen and National Commander James LaCoursiere Jr.

The donation represents the company’s ongoing commitment of giving back to organizations such as American Legion. Founding Fathers Products also supports Folds of Honor with ongoing donations. These donations are available by the company’s pledge to donate 50% of profits to organizations that provide services to military families.

“it’s our honor to continue supporting American Legion with donations made possible with our company’s success,” said Phil Knutsen, CEO of Founding Fathers Products. “Our valuable partnerships with retail entities and the support of loyal customers across the country have allowed us to give back.”

Founding Fathers Coffee and Pet Treats are currently available at Amazon.com and select retail locations across the U.S. For more information on Founding Fathers Products, visit www.foundingfathersproducts.com.

About Founding Fathers

Established in 2009 by Minnesota entrepreneur Phil Knutsen, the mission of Founding Fathers is to keep America strong one product at a time by providing the best American-made products aligned with the principles and values that made the United States the greatest country in the world. Founding Fathers Products will donate 50 percent of profits from the sale of its goods to support military troops and their families. For more information, visit www.foundingfatherscoffees.com.